

MEET OUR JUDGES!

DeAngelo Cheatom

DeAngelo Cheatom a Detroit, Michigan Native who has been dancing since the age of 3, has studied ballet, modern, tap, jazz and Hip Hop. He received his training from The Detroit School of Arts, Detroit Windsor Dance Academy, The Link School Of Arts and The University of The Arts. DeAngelo has now performed all over the world performing in Concert Dance with Eleone Dance theater out of Philadelphia for 3 seasons. He then moved on to become a freelance artist performing in shows like Hot Jersey Nights, Broadway Christmas Wonderland, Man in The Mirror, Blazing Boots And Let's Misbehave just to name a few. His love for the art of dance and the stage has grown beyond his wildest dreams and he enjoys sharing all of his gifts for all to receive.

Christina Pendleton

Christina began her extensive dance training in Southern California in classical ballet, jazz, and hip hop. She grew up playing roles such as Clara and The Dewdrop Fairy in Tchaikovsky's "The Nutcracker" and was the captain of her dance and cheer teams before she went on to coach them. Her training extended to ballroom where she danced competitively, both individually and on the renowned formation team at Brigham Young University, with a full scholarship for dance. She claimed national and world titles during her time at BYU, touring, performing and competing worldwide in Thailand, Vietnam, England, and Scotland, to name a few. Christina has a Bachelors of Fine Arts from BYU and is currently a professional ballroom instructor there as adjunct faculty. She is ISTD certified in international ballroom and has taught children, youth, and adults in all dance genres both individually and on a team level. When Christina isn't teaching dance, she is teaching fitness, working as a certified health coach, and spending time with her husband and three amazing sons.

Courtney Papenfuss

Courtney Papenfuss is currently a professional ballroom dance instructor in Redlands, CA. She received her Dance Degree from Brigham Young University emphasizing ballroom, ballet, and jazz. She has been dancing for over 25 years and has been teaching and choreographing for the last 15 years. She has won numerous choreography awards over the years of teaching at numerous studios. She was a member of the Brigham Young University Ballroom Dance Touring company and had the chance to travel and perform all over the world. The BYU Ballroom team is the undefeated National U.S. formation Team champions. She has won First place at the national level in both international standard and smooth genres. She competed with the team and won the world championship title at the British Formation Championships in Blackpool, England followed by a performing tour across Germany and Switzerland.